

A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION ABOUT BAIL REFORM IN NY

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2017
6:00PM–8:30PM

CAPITAL SOUTH CAMPUS CENTER
20 WARREN STREET, ALBANY, NY 12202

More than 70% of people currently being held in jails across New York State are detained pretrial. This means thousands who have only been charged with a crime and are innocent under the law are being detained because they cannot afford to pay bail.

NO ONE SHOULD BE IN JAIL SIMPLY BECAUSE THEY DON'T HAVE ENOUGH MONEY TO BUY THEIR FREEDOM.

At this event, we will:

1 LEARN

about bail practices in New York, and about pretrial detention in the Capital Region

2 SHARE

stories about how current bail practices affect people who have been arrested, as well as their loved ones

3 DISCUSS

the reform efforts underway in New York, and how to get involved!

THIS EVENT IS FREE. LIGHT FOOD AND DRINKS PROVIDED.

Bail Reform in New York: The Time is Now.

To RSVP, or for more information, please contact:

Amy Jones | 518-542-6854 | amy.cflj@gmail.com, or
Sean Hill | 347-921-0826 | shill@katalcenter.org

Hosted by the Center for Law and Justice (www.cflj.org)
and the Katal Center for Health, Equity, and Justice (www.katalcenter.org)

Center for Law and Justice

katal
CENTER FOR HEALTH,
EQUITY, AND JUSTICE